

SEATTLE GARDEN CLUB PRESS RELEASE

THE 2012 PAMELA GREEN

HORTICULTURE SPEAKER/SERIES PRESENTS

IN A RARE WEST COAST APPEARANCE ...

ANDREA WULF

Best Selling Author of

FOUNDING GARDENERS

A fascinating look at our founding fathers from the unique perspective of their lives as gardeners, plantsmen and farmers

7:00pm - Thursday, March 1, 2012

The Museum of History & Industry

Tickets: $20.00 Students: $10.00

- Proceeds to benefit SGC's Community Projects Fund -

'...lively and deeply researched history...Wulf ingeniously connects that highbrow political philosophy to the founding father's personal passion for horticulture...thoughtful account' Washington Post

'...illuminating and engrossing...Wulf has written an ecological and historical narrative, revisionist in the best sense, combining the suspense of war with an intimate view of the private lives devoted to the natural science... throughout the narrative Wulf squarely faces the institution of slavery.'
New York Times Sunday Book Review

For more information and tickets visit www.seattlegardenclub.org

The Seattle Garden Club, a non-profit organization and member of the Garden Club of America since 1917, is dedicated to stimulating the knowledge and love of gardening, to aid in the protection of the quality of the environment, to assist in civic beautification, to aid and carry on charitable, scientific and educational activities in all of the said fields.